

Samantha Copus

I am the Head Teacher at St Mary's and I have been a member of the governing body for over ten years. Teaching and Learning is my passion, with a focus on Special Educational Needs, Disability and Safeguarding as well as liaising with the staff at the school. I spend my weekends with my family and love being outdoors, with a keen interest in water sports and walking.